OBJECTIVE

To know some of the words that are linked to cyberbullying

OUTCOME

To understand what some of the words are linked to cyberbullying mean

MATERIALS

Paper, colouring materials, pencils, rubbers

INSTRUCTIONS

1 - Introduce the exercise to the children, and present the objectives and outcomes

2 - Talk through the following keywords and definitions one-by-one:

CYBERBULLY - A person who bullies someone over the phone or internet by sending rude messages

CYBER-VICTIM - A person who receives rude messages

COMPUTER - An electronic device that a lot of people have at home, which you can use to play games or do homework

CHAT - Where you talk to other people

THREAT - A hurtful and rude comment that makes someone feel scared

TWITTER - A website where you can 'follow' people, even celebrities

INTERNET - Something you go onto from your computer/to play games, speak to other people or find out useful information

GAMES - Fun activities which you can play by yourself or with other people

3 - End the exercise by asking the children to draw pictures that represent the above

EVALUATION

- Ask some volunteers to explain why they drew their particular picture to represent their chosen Vocabulary word
- If they drew more than one word as a picture, ask them to pick one and also explain why they picked that drawing out of the other ones they drew

NOTES

- When presenting the vocabulary, either read these out or use the accompanying slides
- When drawing the pictures, tell the children that they can draw as many or as few pictures that represent the vocabulary as they like
- You could continue the exercise as a game! Get Individuals to show the group one of their pictures and see if they can identify the word!"
